I don't like air conditioning but I found a place where it should have been useful (the sculpture with persons in the snow)...
The re-construction of the scene on the beach is wonderful, and it shows in a brilliant way we can't compare with the works of Mother Nature.

I was interested in these works as Some of the concepts are similar to those that interest me in My own art practice - I like this - however I found the finished visuals a little undeveloped and disappointing
